Rajesh Goyal

(The Director - The Eye Behind IIP)

An exceptional blend of creative and entrepreneurial skills, Rajesh Goyal is the vision behind the pioneering effort of IIP's photography education in India. A zealous and passionate photographer, Rajesh Goyal possesses a rare aesthetic sense and an eye for photography usually unmatched.

An alumnus from the College of Arts Chandigarh, he started working as a professional photographer while still in college and still managed to rank number one in the University.

Rajesh Goyal has an experience of over 20 years in the world of Photography and Advertising.

Rajesh Goyal wasn't content with being an artist among photographers. Instead, he felt a mission in life, to pass on this legacy of art to the coming generation, to make photography the art of all. And that is where the dream of online photography education started taking shape.

To be the first truly global Institute of Photography accessible to everybody, irrespective of their age, location or financial status, in order to unleash the potential photographer in them.

About IIP

With the vision of providing professional learning to ardent photographers, Indian Institute of Photography introduced itself as a pacesetter in the growing photography teaching industry in 2010. Today, the institute prides itself on its student centric approach and its handling of photography as a professional and vocational subject. In this regard, IIP has emerged as the pioneer of Online Photography Courses, meant to cater to the needs of budding photographers in India.

IIP now offers three meticulously designed photography courses; each designed and developed in partnership with Subject Matter and Industry Experts. With courses ranging from basic camera operations to higher levels of technical expertise, the institute aims to be the single point provider of Photography Teaching Solutions.

Commitment towards this art form focusing on the quality of photographers being produced and nurtured in the industry differentiates us from the slew of other photography institutes. IIP therefore, sees itself as an answer to the long felt-need for a professional institute of photography in India.

This course really helped me a lot. Best part was the faculty who taught us how to play with lighting, camera and all. Photography was just my hobby, now I want to make it my profession.

Shruti Verma

It is a fantastic experience for me as I have learned how to make a story out of a simple photograph. It is a complete course for a beginner to understand photography and to take it forward as a serious career option.

Suva Ghosh

IIP's weekend photography course is good for a budding photographer like me. I learned here about the basics of photography and various features of DSLR camera with the guidance of the Institute's great mentors.

P. Elamparithi

I am very glad to have joined IIP's online photography course because it helped me a lot to know about the in-depth features of camera and sense of photography. Its assignments helped me to inculcate the required essence of clicking, enabling me to become a good photographer.
